

Can I order Beef online - pickup in person?

Yes ... But ... We offer this service only for all Live animals (beef, lamb, and Goat) for clients located in Southern California or within a reasonable driving distance to Southern California.

Simply place item (s) in a shopping basket and follow checkout instructions. We require only a small deposit payment at time of order, balance at time of pickup. You can either pickup the animals alive from our ranch and take to any processing center of your choice, or allow us to extend our special free service to you, by coordinating on your behalf the delivery of your animal to a reputable State approved processing facilities.

At this time, our capacity to fulfill orders for livestock (beef, lamb , goat) is restricted to a regional level. We are able to fulfil orders from clients in San Diego County, Riverside and Orange County, as well as San Bernardino and Los Angeles County. We have serviced clients who were wiling to drive extended distance from Arizona, Nevada and even Northern California. We try to accommodate clients who are out of our area by extending our hours and working around their trip schedule. It is our tradition to offer all of our clients with a free large box of fresh fruits (u-Pick) as our way of expressing appreciation for your orders. We are very lucky to have wonderful clients and receive very high repeat and referral business, consistently over 75% during past several years.
